Protected Disclosures Act 2014-2022

The Protected Disclosures Act 2014 came into effect on 15 July 2014 and was amended on 01 January 2023 by the Protected Disclosures (Amendment) Act 2022.

This Act provides a framework within which workers can raise concerns regarding potential wrongdoing that has come to their attention in the workplace in the knowledge that they can avail of significant and other protections if they are penalised by their employer or suffer any detriment for doing so.

Cavan and Monaghan Education and Training Board (CMETB) has put in place a policy and procedures, which in tandem with the legislation, will encourage workers to report potential wrongdoing in the knowledge that their concerns will be taken seriously and investigated, where appropriate, and that their confidentiality will be respected.

The policy highlights that it is always appropriate to raise concerns when they are based on a reasonable belief, irrespective of whether any wrongdoing is in fact subsequently identified. The policy also provides workers with guidance on how to raise concerns

This policy applies to all CMETB workers including contractors, consultants, agency staff, former employees and interns/trainees.

In accordance with the provisions of the Protected Disclosures Acts, CMETB has appointed Fiona Nugent to receive protected disclosures. The designated officer can be contacted by telephone at 047 30888, by email at speakup@cmetb.ie or by post at Cavan and Monaghan ETB, Administration Centre, Market Street, Monaghan, H18 W449.
